

WBFS-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
JANUARY 1 THROUGH MARCH 31, 2009

Attached are listings of broadcasts or broadcast segments that, in the Stations' judgment, reflect the Station's most significant programming treatment of ascertained issues during the preceding three-month period. The Station produced and broadcast a "Community Calendar" and public service announcements promoting local community events and campaigns.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA- A half-hour weekly public affairs broadcast featuring panel discussions and interviews with community leaders, focusing on important issues of local concern. Broadcast dates and times as indicated in the report.

CBS4 NEWS FEATURE REPORTS- Special and series reports focusing on important local issues. These reports air during selected CBS4 News broadcasts on WBFS-TV. Duration: Each part is approximately three minutes. Broadcast times and dates indicated in the report.

EDUCATION/FAMILY: Topics in this category include: grandmothers who play sports to raise funds for charity; local Catholic schools closing; fatherhood; and a professional program to raise funds for needy families.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/11, 9 AM. This segment was a special report about a group of grandmothers who play competitive sports to raise funds for family charities. 2/8, 9 AM. The Seymour Family from Sacred Heart Catholic Parish discussed the closing of their church's school by the Archdiocese of Miami and the impact that this will have on their children and many other students attending this Catholic school. 2/8, 9 AM. In another segment, Harlan Cohen, author of the book "Dad's Pregnant Too!" explained how fathers experience physical and emotional changes during their partners' pregnancy and childbirth. 2/22, 9 AM. Eddie Carbone, Executive Director of the World Golf Championships, discussed how the public might join this year's Tickets For Charity program and help raise money for Neighbors 4 Neighbors' Family Fund and other local charities.

CULTURE/INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS: Topics in this category include: humanitarian program for victims of Gaza Strip conflict; Castro regime's 50th anniversary in Cuba; grants for local artists; and Jazz in the Gardens festival.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/11, 9 AM. Shirin Faradi, spokesperson for Global Hope Network International discussed her organization's humanitarian work for civilian victims of the violence in the Gaza Strip. 1/25, 9 AM. CBS4 Anchor Elliott Rodriguez and Florida International University student, Keith Fernandez discussed the 50th Anniversary of the Castro regime in Cuba and reflected on the future of Cuba/U.S. Relations. 2/22, 9 AM. Lorenzo Lebrija, James L. and John S. Knight Foundation and local artist Naomi Fisher discussed the Knight Arts Challenge grant which is designed to help art flourish in South Florida. 3/22, 9 AM. Ula Zucker, Spokesperson for the City of Miami Gardens discussed the economic impact of the Jazz in the Gardens Music Festival that brings world class jazz artists to this low-income community.

ECONOMY/CRIME: Topics in this category include: tips for financial stability; charitable barbershop; business helping revitalize downtown Miami; money-saving tax tips; tips for recovering from job loss; problems at housing development; and increase in South Florida gang activity.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/11, 9 AM. Matt McGrath, Evensky & Katz Wealth Management provided tips for financial stability during 2009. 1/25, 9 AM. A special report on the Chop Shop Barbershop and how this popular inner city hair cutting establishment is making a difference in the lives of those in need. 2/8, 9 AM. Clive Seecomer, local business owner discussed how his business is helping revitalize downtown Miami. 2/22, 9 AM. Karla Gotlieb, Human Services Coalition, shared money-saving tax tips, where to file taxes for free and why rapid refunds might be a scam. The segment also provided information about the Neighbors 4 Neighbors tax phone bank and volunteers from the Miami Dade Enrolled Agents that can answer viewer tax questions for free. 3/22, 9 AM. Michael "Dr. Woody" Woodward, PhD, Organizational Psychologist and Vanessa Bartram, founder of Work Square, shared their tips on how to reinvent yourself and find a job if you've been laid off. CBS4 NEWS FEATURE: DEVELOPER'S DISASTER CAUSES MODERN GHOST TOWN: 1/14, 10 PM. This investigative report focused on a developer that has abandoned a housing development in the Florida Keys and the problems that this has caused the 10 homeowners who bought townhomes in this development. CBS4 NEWS FEATURE: SOUTH FLORIDA GANGS MAKING A COMEBACK: 3/6, 10 PM. This report examined the increasing gang activity in South Florida that according to Frank Ledee, head of the Miami Dade State Attorney's Gang Unit the number of active gangs, members and gang violence incidents in South Florida have doubled in recent years.

HEALTH: Topics in this category include: tips for affordable personal fitness; benefits of Special Olympics; and investigation of infant deaths.

FOCUS ON SOUTH FLORIDA: 1/11, 9 AM. Personal trainer Guido Trinidad provided tips for improving personal fitness on a budget. 3/22, 9 AM. Mark Thompson, Special Olympics Executive Director and Andy Miyares, Special Olympics Athlete, discussed how this program changes the lives of their mentally-disabled athletes and reviewed their upcoming Inspire Greatness Gala where they honor important donors and supporters. CBS4 NEWS FEATURE: INFANT DEATHS LINKED TO COMMON DISEASE: 3/27, 10 PM. This investigative report examined the deaths of two infants that appear to be linked to a common illness. Both babies were born at the same hospital in Fort Pierce and airlifted, fourteen days apart, to Miami Children's Hospital and died from infections after being exposed to a common bacterium known as Pseudomonas.

POLITICS/GOVERNMENT: Topics in this category include: new U.S. President and city resolution to stop import of foreign construction workers. 1/25, 9 AM. Professor Jean Rahier, Director of African Studies, Florida International University discussed the historical and social significance of the election of an African-American President. CBS4 NEWS FEATURE: MIAMI MOVES TO BLOCK FOREIGN WORKERS: 2/25, 10 PM. This report focused on a City of Miami Commission resolution prohibiting companies that do business with the city from hiring foreign workers under the H2B visa program. The move comes in response to a CBS4 News investigation which showed how foreign sheet metal workers were brought into the country for a major construction project in Bal Harbour even though there are more than a thousand unemployed sheet metal workers in South Florida.